

Ryan Bronson

Director of Conservation and Public Policy for Vista Outdoor, a publicly traded company with an array of outdoor recreation brands including Overland Park based Bushnell, Federal Premium Ammunition, Savage Arms, Primos, BLACKHAWK!, Hoppes, Camel Back, Weaver, CCI, Speer and Champion Traps and Targets.

With a degree in Biology (wildlife), Bronson has previously worked for the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, the Minnesota state legislature, and served as political director for Governor Tim Pawlenty. Bronson is a professional member of the Boone and Crockett Club; life member of Pheasants Forever, Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, and the Mule Deer Foundation. He serves on the board of directors for non-profits Youth Shooting Sports Alliance, Mule Deer Foundation, and is chairman of the board of Wichita based Pass it On Outdoor Mentors. Bronson drove the 759 miles from Eagan, Minnesota with his 11 year old black lab Delta with the support of his wife Christine and 6 year old son.