

Jonathan Owen | SHWAT.com

Jonathan Owen is publisher of Special Hunting Weapons And Tactics™, SHWAT.com. He grew up in the 4-H shooting sports program but didn't arrive at hunting until later in life. That love affair started when he was asked to join a West Texas wild hog hunt. One thing led to another and at the suggestion of his brother, SHWAT™ was born. A certified NRA rifle instructor, Jonathan enjoys sharing his experiences and knowledge with others both online and through print publications as a freelance shooting, hunting and outdoors story teller. Sometimes the stories are written, sometimes they are video productions, but they almost always utilize his skills behind a camera. Putting others in the spotlight is one of his favorite roles at SHWAT.com.
