

Conservationist Shane Mahoney Speaks At Oakley High School Friday, November 18th

Coming from St. Johns, Newfoundland, Conservation Visions, Inc. internationally renowned scientist, wildlife expert and conservationist, Shane Mahoney, will speak about conservation and wildlife to the Oakley High School students on November 18th from 12:00 pm to 12:30 pm at the Oakley High School auditorium located at 118 W 7th Street. The general public is welcome to attend. Shane's mission and passion is to educate and inspire people on why conservation matters. The students will have an opportunity to explore their role and impact on our future world. This program is sponsored through funding from the Midwest Energy Community Fund. For more information, contact The Ringneck Classic at 785-671-1000.

Shane Mahoney is the keynote speaker Saturday night at the Kansas Governor's Ringneck Classic. He is a featured partner in Pheasants Forever/Quail Forever organization's efforts to conserve upland habitat, as well as a lifetime member. He speaks at National Pheasants Forever events, and is a contributor to the non-profit's online efforts, as well as its signature publication, the Pheasants Forever Journal.