

Jon Zinnel

Conservation & Youth Shooting Sports Manager for Federal Premium and CCI Ammunition. I grew up in a small town in northern Iowa where I participated in many shooting sports and conservation programs and have continued my passion of shooting sports into my professional career. I now manage relationships with many non-profit Conservation Organizations across the country and assists in many R3 programs introducing the next generation to outdoor related activities and the shooting sports.