

Bobby Wieczorek

I am the owner of Dumpster Pros LLC located in Charleston, SC. A former outfitter of 15 years in the states of New Mexico and Wyoming, hunting is my life passion. My wife and best friend Kelly accompanies me on most of my hunting excursions. Although fairly new to the sport she is just as passionate as I am. Turkey hunting is my vice. I am on the way to harvesting turkeys in every state and country that has them. We both are really looking forward to our first Kansas Goverours hunt.
