Jordan L.K. Martincich

Vice President of Development

Pheasants Forever, Inc. / Quail Forever

Jordan is a man of faith, a husband, and a father. He is a lifelong upland bird hunter and bird dog owner with a love of upland wildlife habitat conservation. He possesses an extensive knowledge of United States upland bird hunting traditions, and he is comfortable in the board room or following a bird dog on the prairie.

Jordan is an enthusiastic, dynamic, results oriented, and resolute leader dedicated to saving the uplands by accelerating Pheasants Forever and Quail Forever's mission. He is recognized as a creative and forward-thinking trailblazer who can inspire broad-based and diverse audience activation.

Jordan is a proven leader with enterprising spirit, 19+ years of professional experience - 14+ years in conservation leadership, and a growth focused vision for the future. In 2023, he was recognized as Pheasants Forever and Quail Forever's Most Valuable Employee, and in 2023 he also received an MBA from Rockhurst University.

Jordan is a member of the Kansas Ringneck Classic "Classic Club" and he makes his home in Overland Park, KS with Denice (wife), Graeme (son), and their bird dogs.
